

Balayage True or False Statements Answer Guide

Statement	True	False
1. Balayage can be safely performed on a client with open wounds or sores on the scalp.		✓
2. Recent use of box dye or henna may cause uneven results when applying balayage.	✓
3. It is important to check for allergies to products before starting a balayage treatment.	✓
4. Balayage should not be performed on hair that is excessively damaged or broken.	✓
5. Clients who have recently had a perm or relaxer may experience unpredictable results with balayage.	✓
6. Pregnancy is always a contraindication to balayage, and the service should never be offered to pregnant clients.		✓
7. Scalp conditions such as psoriasis or dermatitis should be considered before performing balayage.	✓
8. Balayage provides the same level of root coverage and regrowth line as traditional full-head highlights.		✓
9. Balayage must always be applied using foils to control heat and ensure even lift.		✓
10. Balayage does not require toning, as the painting technique automatically creates the correct final shade.		✓