

Good hygiene helps prevent cross-infection in barbering.	True
Guards are used on clippers to control the length of the cut.	True
Symmetry is important to ensure the haircut looks balanced.	True
Blending is not necessary when using clippers.	False
The neckline should be clean and well-defined to finish a haircut professionally.	True
Precision is not important when creating detailed barbering work.	False