

Answer Guide

BONES OF THE SHOULDER GIRDLE

ANTERIOR (FRONT) VIEW

POSTERIOR (BACK) VIEW

KEY FACTS

- The shoulder girdle is made up of two bones: the clavicle and the scapula.
- These bones connect the upper limb to the axial skeleton.
- They provide movement, support and protection for the shoulder.